International partnerships in higher education or international partnership between universities is needed for mutual benefits based on their current and future needs for universities development as well as for countries development. Cooperation makes universities' resources more useful.

University of HKBP Nommensen (UHN) needs international partnerships with universities abroad. UHN's mission is "UHN Goes International" which is being implemented through 8 programs: (1) International Recognition for Alumni (study abroad, work abroad), (2) World-class Quality Service, (3) International Class, (4) International Scientific Publication, (5) International Sandwich Program, (6) International Exchange of Lecturers, (7) International Exchange of Students, dan (8) International Dual/Double Degree.

International partnerships will give benefits not only to UHN but also to UHN's Partner Universities. Hence, we now invite all universities in the world to establish partnership with UHN by signing MoU at the first step.

Benefit to UHN :

1. UHN will have wider possibilities to send more its alumni and lectures for Master or PhD program at UHN's Partner Universities.
2. UHN will have wider possibilities to send its students for short courses provided by UHN's Partner Universities.
3. UHN will have more joint researches with UHN's Partner Universities, and hence UHN together with UHN's Partner Universities will have more scientific publication in international journals.
4. UHN and UHN's Partner Universities will have great chance to receive joint research fund granted by Indonesian Government by attaching the MoU signed by UHN together with UHN's Partner Universities.
5. UHN will be have more chance to make better learning process.

Benefits to UHN's Partner Universities:

1. UHN's Partner Universities will be more attractive to students, alumni and researchers from UHN and Indonesia.
2. UHN's Partner Universities will have wider possibilities to send students for short courses at UHN.
3. UHN's Partner Universities will have more opportunities to demonstrate to Indonesian people that partners community is a stable, peaceful and tolerant people.
4. UHN's Partner Universities and UHN will have great chance to receive joint reserch fund granted by Indonesian Government by attaching the MoU signed by UHN togeteher with UHN's Partner Universities.
5. UHN's Partner Universities will be more easier in conducting researches in Indonesia since they have UHN as partner.
6. UHN's Partner Universities will have oportunities to do transfer of knowledge and technology to Indonesia especially to UHN.
7. UHN's Partner Universities will have more chance to be internationally acknowledged and accredited.
